SPONSORSHIP

Economic Development Week in Maryland illuminates the impact that economic development has on the business climate, job retention and growth, tax base, and quality of life throughout our state.

When you sponsor Economic Week in Maryland, you steward the projects that make our towns and cities extraordinary. By supporting Economic Development Week in Maryland, you show your commitment to the journey, and the economic developers who are focused on the destination.

Sponsorship opportunities are detailed below. All sponsors will be featured on Economic Development Week in Maryland marketing materials, in our social media outreach, and on all media alerts. Your sponsorship will energize the people and projects transforming our communities. Contact us to learn more.
